Investment Option soft closure

Ausbil Australian Smallcap Fund

Effective date
5 December 2025

Effective 5 December 2025, Ausbil Investment Management Limited (Ausbil) as responsible entity announced that the Ausbil Australian Smallcap Fund will be closing to new investors, due to capacity constraints with the smallcap investment strategy. Ausbil believes that closing the investment option to new investors will help ensure that it continues to meet the stated investment objectives.

Existing unitholders in the investment option are still able to make additional investments and reinvest any earnings.

Investment Options temporary hard closureTyndall Australian Share Wholesale Fund*Effective date*Tyndall Australian Share Income Fund*1 December 2025

On 1 December 2025, Yarra Capital Management Limited, a 50% owner of affiliate Tyndall AM, announced that they had made the decision to close Tyndall AM's large cap value equities business in the coming months. As part of this, Tyndall's small companies franchise will be repositioned and rebranded, while remaining an affiliate of Yarra Capital Management Group.

The new affiliate will be led by Tim Johnston and James Nguyen as Co-Portfolio Managers.

Additionally, the independent directors of the Responsible Entity for the Tyndall funds have resolved to appoint Yarra as the investment manager of the Tyndall Australian Share Wholesale Fund and the Tyndall Australian Share Income Fund effective 2 January 2026.

To facilitate this transition, the investment options will be temporarily hard closed (closed to new money) by Yarra Capital Management Limited from 2 December 2025 to 1 January 2026. Further details of changes to investment approach will be provided in a future update.

Fund ManagerEffective date*BFML*1 December 2025

On 1 December 2025, Bennelong Funds Management Ltd (BFML) as responsible entity notified of a significant event affecting the value of investment options below.

Corporate Travel Management Limited (ASX code: CTD) was suspended from trading on the ASX on 22 August 2025 at the rest of their Board of Directors. Due to this, there is currently no observable market price for CTD securities.

BFML is currently reassessing the fair value of CTD securities based on the information presently available. The reassessed value is likely to be significantly lower than CTD's last price on the ASX and the reassessed value will contribute to calculating unit prices struck for all the investment options from Friday 28 November 2025. BFML anticipates a reduction in CTD's valuation will result in a commensurate reduction to the investment option unit prices and impact performance.

This event does not alter the investment objections, strategies or risk profiles of the investment options.
